

1st International Working Group on Thalassemia: IS IT TIME TO REVISIT CLASSIFICATION OF THALASSEMIA SYNDROMES ?

FACULTY ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

All FACULTY abstract submissions must be made electronically through Collage's online abstract submission system.

DEADLINE: JULY 20, 2017

FORMAT

single line spacing between paragraphs font: Times New Roman - 12 pt.

350 word limit;

main bibliography, if any (max 3 ref.).

1 tab

1 image

LANGUAGE

Use English only

Please note:

- Additional Authors may not be added after submission closes, nor after acceptance
- Your abstracts will be published as a digital abstract book, made available online on the IWG dedicated website www.iwgthalassemia.it, after the Congress

DO'S

- 350 word limit
- Check spelling
- Include data and statistics
- Truthfully describe study design
- Define acronyms
- Clearly state study purpose

DON'TS

- Identify authors institution
- Use brand or product names
- Include extraneous statements
- Include incomplete data
- Misrepresent the truth

September 15-16, 2017

CAMPUS OF HEMATOLOGY

"Franco e Piera Cutino" - A.O.R. "Villa Sofia - V. Cervello" - Palermo